8. Teacher's academic profile	I have got MA and PhD in Applied linguistics and English Language Teaching at SU. I have been teaching for 7 years now.
9. Keywords	Grammar/ structure
10. Course overview:	The coursebook is intended mainly for intermediate students (students who have already studied the basic grammar of English). It concentrates on those structures which intermediate students want to use, but which often cause difficulty. Some advanced students who have problems with grammar will also find the book useful. Each unit concentrates on a particular point of grammar. Some problems (for example, the present perfect or the use of the) are covered in more than one unit. For a list of units, see the Contents at the beginning of the book.
11. Course objective:	Grammar can serve to teach the grammatical structures abreast with the different uses of them. It can also serve as a basis for revision and as a means for practising new structures. It will also be useful for some more advanced students who have problems with grammar and need a book for reference and practice.
12. Student's obligation	The students are required to; 1. attend classes regularly. 2. prepare for coming lectures 3. doing homework and work collaboratively
13. Forms of teaching	The course is taught straight through the direct presentation of the instructor first followed by the dense involvement of the students to participate and review the contents by drilling. Inductive approach is used in delivering the content of classes.
14. Assessment scheme	It is based on two main exam, plus intermittent quizzes and everyday participation on the part of the learners. 40 Midterm exam 5 Quizzes 5 Daily activity 50 Terminal exam

15. Student learning outcome:

After this course the students will become familiar with the structure of language in terms of both the form and the meaning. Also, the right and correct form of sentential word arrangement can be grasped.
